

The Sower (Matthew 13:1-9)- key of G Major - 3/4 time (swing feel)

Eight measure Intro on G

G
Well the farmer woke up early one day
a D7
He got dressed to go on his narrow way
a D7
But before he left his heavenly home
a G
He picked up some seeds, then started to roam.

Four measure break on G

G
He scattered his seed all over the earth
a D7
Some fell on the rocks, some fell on the dirt
a D7
Some fell in the mouths of hungry birds
a G
Some fell on the ground, but were choked by thorns.

Four measure break on G

G
Oh, the seeds that fell on the stony rocks
a D7
Began to grow, and then it got hot
a D7
The sun scorched the plant that never took root
a G
The young flower died, is that young flower you?

Four measure break on G

G
But some seeds fell on the broken earth
a D7
Their roots grow deep and began to give birth
a D7
The rose that bloomed had a tender heart

a G
For the farmer and his beautiful crop.

Four measure break on G

Well the farmer at the end of his day
a D7
Went back to his home, which was a long way
a D7
But before he left, he had this to say
a D7
Peace I leave you, and I'll see you one day.

Four measure break on G

G
Now all the flowers look towards the Sun
a D7
And eagerly wait when their day will be done
a D7
When the farmer comes back and takes them all home
a G
Where they'll sit at the table and never grow old.
